

RELEASE AND WAIVER OF LIABILITY

In consideration of the permission granted to me by Maine Guide Service LLC, the Appalachian Trail Conservancy ("ATC"), and the Maine Appalachian Trail Club ("MATC") to enter the Appalachian Trail Crossing at the Kennebec River and/or participate in the Kennebec River Ferry Service, I hereby agree to release, indemnify, save and hold harmless Maine Guide Service LLC, ATC, MATC, their successors, employees, directors, agents, and representatives from any and all claims, demands, damages, costs, losses, expenses, actions and judgments, including any and all liability resulting from personal injury (including death) to me and/or my personal property, and any and all liability arising out of the negligence of Maine Guide Service LLC, ATC, MATC, or their successors, employees, directors, agents, or representatives, during the course of my use of the Appalachian Trail Crossing at the Kennebec River and/or participation in the Kennebec River Ferry Service.

By signing below, I agree that I understand and assume the risks associated with my use of the Appalachian Trail Crossing at the Kennebec River and/or participation in the Kennebec River Ferry Service. I understand that the Kennebec River and the Indian Pond Project licensed by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission are the location of various activities related to a hydroelectric facility. The Kennebec River and the Indian Pond Project possess and create natural and human-made conditions of a hazardous nature. These hazards include but are not limited to steep embankments, dangerous whitewater stretches, submerged rocks, treacherous currents and sudden, unannounced water releases from upstream dams and hydroelectric facilities, including the Harris Station and Long Falls Dam, which releases may result in sudden water level changes, all of which may pose a danger to me and others.
