2023 Maine Camp Directory

Dear Future Campers (and camp parents and guardians who may choose to read this...),

The directory you hold in your hands is in one sense, a straightforward list of contact information and website details for Maine Summer Camps' 150+ member camps. These camps come in all shapes and sizes, and whatever your age, interest, or budget, there is a camp for you.

In another sense though, this directory is a map to a fantastic adventure: a key to open the door to a whole new world of friendships; an instruction manual to learning wonderful new skills; and a mirror that will help you see yourself in new and inspiring ways.

Maine camps have always been places where young people from across the state, country, and world have gathered to share new experiences and grow in every positive way imaginable. For over a century, parents have sent their campers to Maine to undertake adventure, meet new friends and role models, learn new skills without stress or schedule, learn how to be away from home, and in the process learn about who they are and who they want to become. It's not just the lakes, mountains, oceans, rivers and endless forests that make Maine camps special. It is the culture of support, growth, and positive change that have always set, and continue to elevate Maine camps to a whole other level.

This guide you hold in your hands is more than just a list of names and numbers. It is the introduction to a world of communities, connections, and activities that you will carry with you for the rest of your life. We know it requires a great deal of courage to head off and spend a summer at a new place, but you should feel great about taking that bold leap, because there is a very good chance it will be the best thing you ever did.

Good luck, enjoy discovering your new camp, and please call the MSC office with any questions.

See you in Maine.

WHY A MAINE SUMMER CAMP?

There's no place quite like Maine

For more than 100 years, families have come to appreciate Maine's summer camps as a haven for kids to experience natural beauty and old-fashioned values.

Maine is more than a place—it's a feeling you get as soon as you arrive. Suddenly, the air's a little fresher, the pines taller, the lakes clearer. You can hear the essence of Maine in the cry of a loon, taste it in a fresh-caught trout, and watch the sun rise a little earlier in Maine than anywhere else in America. Fact is, there's more of Maine, and more to Maine, than the rest of New England combined: deeper forests, bigger lakes, more rugged mountains, longer rivers and more than 3000 miles of shoreline.

Taking fun seriously

Maine Summer Camps reflect all the possibilities of Maine. They can be as traditional as a canoe trip and as futuristic as rocketry. Among our more than 140 member camps, many help develop skills in sports and outdoor adventure; some teach a musical instrument, others may inspire kids to plant the seeds of the next forest.

Whether operating public or private camps, all Maine camp directors take a highly professional approach to their jobs. They work to foster growth and instill the timeless values of teamwork, responsibility and mutual respect, while always putting your child's well-being first. That means carefully screening and training counselors, inspecting and repairing facilities, and accommodating the varying needs of children. You'll be glad to learn that Maine was the first state to inspect youth camps for health and safety, and the first to certify Trip Leaders.

Helping kids reach their full potential

Our high-tech lifestyle gives kids today opportunities never dreamed of before. But many kids miss out on some of the most important ingredients in becoming healthy adults: connection to nature; exercise and play; meaningful friendships; and positive adult role models.

Time spent at a Maine Summer Camp can restore balance to your children's over-scheduled days, teach lifelong skills and allow friendships to flourish. It can help build a foundation for a successful and happy life. Here are the key benefits to kids of summer camp:

♦ Community and Friendship

Facebook friends are nice but they're no substitute for real friends and mentors. At Maine Summer Camps, kids make lifelong friends grounded in the experience of living together and caring for each other in many ways. They learn social rules, acceptable behavior and leadership. And the positive role models kids find in their adult counselors can have a lasting impact on their lives.

◆ Nature

Kids have fewer and fewer opportunities to be outdoors. As Richard Louv makes clear in his bestseller, Last Child in the Woods: Saving our Children from Nature Deficit Disorder, nature must be experienced to be fully appreciated. Living in a natural setting is a defining experience of summer camp—especially in Maine.

◆ Exercise

Maine Summer Camps offer a range of activities that fosters enjoyment of physical activity and counteract the effects of too much sitting and eating in our society today. It's a lot easier to get motivated to be active when exciting, new activities available in Maine's beautiful outdoors are right at your doorstep!

◆ Activities and Play

Maine Summer Camps offer wonderful structured activities to meet your child's individual interests, with ample time for kids to just be kids—to engage spontaneously in games, free play, discussions and plain old hanging out with each other.

◆ Learning

Maine camps provide kids with different kinds of learning from schools; they're more actively involved and more experientially engaged. Recent research has shown that 95 percent of science is learned outside the classroom.

◆ Developing Initiative, Confidence and Leadership Skills

Summer camps are a microcosm of the larger world. They are highly participatory communities where children can safely gain confidence and stretch their evolving capacities for leadership and initiative. Often for the first time, campers experience caring adults outside their families and meet peers from outside their circle of friends. In short, a Maine Summer Camp experience can be the opportunity of a lifetime for your children: a concentrated period of growing and learning, personal development and new friendships—along with the priceless gift of discovering Maine's unparalleled natural beauty.

For more about the benefits of camp to your kids, please visit our website at: www.mainecamps.org. Here you'll find links to camps, informative articles and a convenient online tool to narrow down your search for your child's camp.

Parents and Siblings: Enjoy a Real Maine Vacation!

Why should the kids have all the fun? Combine your visit to your children at camp with your next vacation, and discover all that Maine has to offer, from quaint seaside villages to mountains, lakes and rivers, to shopping and summer stock theater. To plan your Maine visit, check out the Parents Resource section of our website at www.mainecamps.org. Here you will find links to accommodations, restaurants, attractions, excursions, and even Maine magazines to help plan your summer vacation. You can also find helpful vacation information at www.mainerism.com.

CURTIS THAXTER

ATTORNEYS AT LAW

Providing legal advice and guidance for Maine summer camps for over 50 years

Curtis Thaxter provides youth camps with experienced representation in children's issues, employment, state and federal regulatory compliance, contracts, property taxation, zoning, environmental matters, litigation, intellectual property, and estate planning and succession services.

Nancy Savage Marcus advises camp clients on real estate and land use matters, corporate governance, financing and contracts, ownership transfers, crisis management, mandatory reporting requirements and many other issues affecting youth camps.

Tyler Costello assists clients with liability waivers, real estate and corporate law, land use matters, property tax issues and appeals, and advises camps on laws concerning minors, including Maine's mandatory reporting statute, and disability and discrimination issues.

Emily Crowley is a business litigator who also advises employers in areas including wage and hour law, contracts, personnel decisions, discrimination, harassment, and workplace safety. Emily also assists clients in drafting and updating employment policies and staff handbooks.

John Gleason counsels businesses on employment matters, including hiring and termination, contract structure and negotiation, wage and hour laws, and compliance with state and federal antidiscrimination and sexual harassment laws.

Patti Smith, our assistant, has provided support for Curtis Thaxter's Maine camps team for over 10 years. Patti's extensive knowledge of our clients and their needs and her strong problem-solving skills make her a great client resource.

We at Curtis Thaxter are proud to support our Maine youth camps as they navigate the challenges of providing an exceptional outdoor educational experience for children. If you need assistance, please contact Nancy Marcus at nmarcus@curtisthaxter.com.
