2025 Maine Summer Camps Directory

The mission of Maine Summer Camps: We support and promote meaningful developmental, educational, environmental, and recreational experiences for children.

About Maine Summer Camps: Using our online presence, publications, trainings, and conferences, we enhance the public's understanding of the value of Maine camps.

We also support camp and business members by offering in-person and virtual educational and networking opportunities; a broad range of resource information, in print, electronically, and online; and carefully curated general, regulatory, and legislative news and updates.

Greetings from beautiful Maine

Thank you for picking up your 2025 copy of the Maine Summer Camps (MSC) Directory of Camps. This booklet has details on every one of more than 140 camp members of MSC. Inside, you can learn more about our camping organization, what makes a great camp, and why Maine camps are particularly special. You'll also find useful information on the finest collection of summer camps in the world, representing camps of every imaginable type — there truly is something for everyone in Maine.

What you can't appreciate from the small listings inside is the incredible communities each and every one of these camps represents, and how magnificent and life-affirming one of those camp communities will soon be for your camper. A camp you learn about from these pages will become so much more than a second home for your lucky camper. It will be the wellspring of lifelong friendships, more lasting friendships than any other experience can provide. The camp you choose will become a place of meaning and purpose, a calm center in which your camper will find that they belong not just next summer, but for all the summers ahead. One of these camps will open your campers' eyes to the skill, pastime, or hobby that they will enjoy (and maybe turn into a profession) for many years to come. One of these camps will become a trusted partner, helping raise your camper through the ups and down of childhood and adolescence. Maybe most importantly, one of these camps will be the source of endless amounts of fun, of stories and tall tales, campfire songs and obscure jokes that you will hear all about at session's end (and endlessly, every time camp friends gather, from now till forever).

We encourage you to visit the websites of the camps that interest you, and set up a visit or a conversation. Finding the right fit for your camper might take online research and a few calls, but it will be worth it to find their place at a camp in Maine.

Wishing you warm summers and starry skies,

Matt Pines, Board President

Why a Maine Summer Camp?

There's no place quite like Maine

For more than 120 years, families have come to appreciate Maine's summer camps as a haven for kids to experience natural beauty and have their emotional, social, physical and cognitive needs met by highly qualified adults.

Maine is more than a place —it's a feeling you get as soon as you arrive. Suddenly, the air's a little fresher, the pines taller, the lakes clearer. You can hear the essence of Maine in the cry of a loon, taste it in a fresh-caught trout, and watch the sun rise a little earlier in Maine than anywhere else in America. The fact is, there's more of Maine, and more to Maine, than the rest of New England combined: deeper forests, bigger lakes, more rugged mountains, longer rivers and more than 3000 miles of shoreline.

Maine Camps take fun seriously

Maine Summer Camps reflect all the possibilities of Maine. Camps can be as traditional as a days-long canoe trip and as futuristic as rocketry. Among our more than 140 member camps, many help develop skills in sports and outdoor adventure; some teach a musical instrument, others may inspire kids to plant the seeds of the next forest.

Whether operating public or private camps, all Maine camp directors take a highly professional approach to their jobs. They work to foster growth and instill the timeless values of teamwork, responsibility and mutual respect, while always putting children’s well-being first. That means carefully screening and training counselors, inspecting and repairing facilities, and accommodating the varying needs of children. It’s no surprise that Maine was the first state to inspect youth camps for health and safety, as well as the first to certify Trip Leaders.

At camp, kids can reach their full potential

Today’s high-tech lifestyle undoubtedly offers children countless opportunities. But many kids miss out on some of the most important ingredients in becoming healthy adults: connection to nature; exercise and play; meaningful friendships; and positive adult role models. Maine camps are largely “unplugged,” offering chances to connect in meaningful, face-to-face, respectful ways. Time spent at a Maine Summer Camp can restore balance to childrens’ over-scheduled days, teach lifelong skills and allow friendships to flourish. It can help build a foundation for a successful and happy life.

The key benefits to kids of summer camp

☀️ Community and Friendship

Online friends and interactions are no substitute for real, in-person friends and mentors. At Maine Summer Camps, kids make lifelong friends grounded in the experience of living together and caring for each other in many ways. They learn social rules, acceptable behavior and leadership. And the positive role models campers find in their adult counselors can have a lasting impact on their lives.

☀️ Nature

Kids have fewer and fewer opportunities to be outdoors. As Richard Louv makes clear in his bestseller, Last Child in the Woods: Saving our Children from Nature Deficit Disorder, nature must be experienced to be fully appreciated. Living in a natural setting is a defining experience of summer camp —especially in Maine.

☀️ Exercise

Maine Summer Camps offer a range of activities that fosters enjoyment of physical activity and counteracts the effects of increasingly sedentary lifestyles. It's a lot easier to get motivated to be active when exciting, new activities available in Maine's beautiful outdoors are right at your doorstep!

☀️ Learning

Maine camps provide kids with an experience of learning that is different from school. Campers are more actively involved and more experientially engaged. For example, recent research has shown that 95 percent of science is learned outside the classroom. Camps also are an ideal setting for fostering social and emotional learning, which is essential to the healthy development of children.

☀️ Activities and Play

Maine Summer Camps offer wonderful, structured activities to meet campers' individual interests, with ample time for kids to just be kids —to engage spontaneously in games, free play, discussions and simply hang out together.

☀️ Developing Initiative, Confidence and Leadership Skills

Summer camps are microcosms of the larger world. They are highly participatory communities where children can safely gain confidence and stretch their evolving capacities for leadership and initiative. Often for the first time, campers experience caring adults outside their families and meet peers from outside their circle of friends. In short, a Maine camp experience can be the opportunity of a lifetime: a concentrated period of growing and learning, personal development and new friendships —along with the priceless gift of discovering Maine's unparalleled natural beauty.

Parents and siblings: enjoy a real Maine vacation!

Why should the kids have all the fun? We enthusiastically recommend that parents combine their visits to camp with planned vacations — a chance to discover all that Maine has to offer, from quaint seaside villages to mountains, lakes and rivers, to shopping and summer stock theater. To plan your Maine visit, check out the Parents Resource section of our website at www.maine camps.org offering links to accommodations, restaurants, attractions, excursions, and even Maine magazines to help plan summer vacations. Helpful vacation information is also available at www.maine tourism.com.

2025 Maine Summer Camps Members

ACA Accredited – The ACA designation under the name of a camp listed in this directory means it is accredited by the American Camp Association, and is authorized to display the Accredited Camp seal logo. Camps are accredited following periodic extensive on-site reviews for compliance with more than 300 rigorous standards focusing on health, safety, and risk management practices. For current information on a camp's accreditation status, contact the the American Camp Association: <https://find.acacamps.org/>.

Junior Maine Guide Program – The Junior Maine Guide Program (JMG) is a joint effort of Maine Summer Camps and the Maine State Department of Inland Fisheries & Wildlife. Established in 1937 by the Maine State Legislature, the JMG Program is an outdoors skills program for youth ages 9-18. It promotes the use of the Maine wilderness for recreation and environmentally responsible land use practices. JMG certification lays the groundwork for later training and certification for a Maine Trip Leader permit, but also provides skills for a lifetime for outdoors enthusiasts. Using current philosophies in outdoor living, the program is unique to Maine and is offered by various Maine summer camps.

Maine Summer Camps

Real Kids. Real Camps. Real Maine!

We are grateful to the Maine Summer Camps donors who fund one or more of these four major initiatives:

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

We provide educational workshops and webinars specifically designed for the professional development of camp professionals working in Maine. Maine Summer Camps' educational opportunities will impact the lives of 60,000 campers and 20,000 staff members in Summer 2025.

JUNIOR MAINE GUIDE PROGRAM

Established in 1937, the Junior Maine Guide certification program is an outdoors skills program for youth ages 9-18 set forth by Maine Summer Camps and the Maine Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife.

LEVEL GROUND INITIATIVE

The Level Ground initiative provides youth summer camp opportunities, free of charge, to immigrant and refugee children in Maine for whom such experiences would otherwise be unavailable.

CAMPERSHIPS

Providing financial aid so underserved Maine children have the chance to benefit from Maine camps. Maine Summer Camps is expanding opportunities for Maine's children in partnership with corporate donors.

Maine Summer Camps is grateful for our generous donors and sponsors. This support means the world to us and to the campers, camps, and camp professionals who we serve.

SPECIAL THANKS TO —

- Our major supporter LL BEAN for providing $125,000 to send Maine children to Maine camps and for administrative support of our Level Ground Initiative!
- MAINE TIMBERLANDS CHARITABLE TRUST for their generous gift of $35,000 for Junior Maine Guide scholarships and equipment.
- The following Maine Summer Camps Business Members that provide major sponsorship for MSC programs and initiatives:
 - AM Skier Insurance Job Board Sponsor
